FORM A

Individual Landcare Membership Form

Becoming a member of a Landcare Group supported by the Heytesbury District Landcare Network (HDLN) offers many advantages. As a Landcare member you have access to the HDLN's services and technical support, access to funding opportunities including the Network's Expression of Interest process, you will be covered by insurance during Landcare activities, and you can share knowledge and experience with other like-minded people from your area.

Membership is compulsory for those who want to access the HDLN services and resources.

TO BECOME A MEMBER OF LANDCARE IN THE HDLN REGION…

STEP 1: Decide which option suits you best

There are three ways you can become a member of Landcare in the HDLN:

Option 1; Join an existing Landcare Group

If you live near one of the existing five Landcare groups in the HDLN region, you can join this group. The annual membership to join a Landcare group is between $20-$44 per household, depending on the group.

Option 2: Become a member of the HDLN (short-term option)

If there's no Landcare group in your area you can join the HDLN until a group is formed in your area. Your membership to the Network will be reviewed annually & if there are enough interested people in your area, a new Landcare group can be established with HDLN support. The annual membership fee to is $44 per household (inc. GST) to cover insurance and administration costs.

Option 3: Start a Landcare group

If there's no Landcare group in your area and there is enough interested people in your area, you can start a new Landcare group or re-establish an old group that has been in recession, with help from the Network. The group can be whatever you want it be: it doesn't have to be called a 'Landcare' group, it can be as formal or as informal as you want it to be, and it can focus on one or many issues.

STEP 2: Join your chosen Landcare group or contact the HDLN

If you decide to join an existing Landcare group or HDLN (Options 1&2), you need to select which group/HDLN in the form, then send the form and corresponding membership fee to Heytesbury District Landcare Network, via post: PO Box 69, Timboon, 3268, or in person at Shop 1/47 Main St Timboon. Your membership will be forwarded to your chosen group. Please contact the group contacts below if you wish to find out more information, including meeting times and activities.
If you want to start a Landcare group (Option 3) you need to contact HDLN on (03) 55 983 755 to further discuss your options.
